

Lions Club of Looe Carnival 2026

APPLICATION FOR CONSIDERATION FOR CARNIVAL ROYALTY (there will be three children chosen)

Essential requirements:

The child is of primary school age and lives in the Looe area.

The care and well-being of the child remain the responsibility of the parent/guardian, including transport to and from events.

The child will be required to attend the Furry Dance on 27 July and the Carnival parade on 1 August 2026.

Applications should be completed by a parent/guardian and be reflective of the applicant.

The Lions Club of Looe will give each parent £60 to purchase an outfit for the child, which are kept by the successful applicants. A cape and headwear will be provided by Looe Lions. A photo session, with a professional photographer, will be arranged shortly after the applications are selected. Parents will be given a photo of their choice and additional photos can be purchased. Some images may be used to publicise the Carnival.

Consent:

I as the parent/guardian of the child entering the Looe Lions 2026 Carnival Royalty choosing consent to Looe Lions using images of my child on their website and/or Facebook page, should they be successful.
